Dear FCC:

I have finally found a phone service that is not expensive and now it will cost me more. I only use my phone for emergencies when the need arises. I was so happy when I discovered the tracphone instead of having to pay a monthly fee I can just get a card to meet my requirements. If this continues many cell phone users will be giving up their cell phones.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please provide a written response indicating the status/resolution of this matter.

Very truly yours,
